1 INTRODUCTION

1.1 WELCOME

Mums4Mums Charitable Trust would like to wish you every success during your agreement, whether you recently joined or whether you are an existing volunteer. We hope that your experience of volunteering with us is positive and rewarding.

1.2 ABOUT MUMS4MUMS CHARITABLE TRUST

Our Purpose:

The purpose of the Trust will be to bring together committed members of the community whose aim is to collaboratively improve maternal mental health outcomes for new mums and quality of life outcomes for babies. The Trust will also provide referral to supporting programs and agencies as needed.

How do we do this?

There are lots of steps in the background but put simply we coordinate loving, experienced women in our community who are police vetted into the homes of new mums and new-borns. We provide important support and nurturing needed to assist mum and babies to improve their outcomes.

Vision:

Mums4Mums vision is that every baby born in New Zealand (single, twin or triplet) or with unique health needs and their mum are nurtured and supported within their first 6-12 weeks for the best chance of survival and quality of life. Support can be provided longer if needed and based on the unique needs of the mum and whanau.

Mission:

Mums4Mums Volunteers believe it is the right for every baby born and their mums to receive the best care possible. We achieve this by supporting mums in their home to care for their babies, support the mums and connect them with other supporting entities to ensure the best outcomes possible for whanau.

Our Principles / MātāPono:

Connecting / Whanaungatanga

Connection is so incredibly important. It's what grounds us and stabilizes us and provides us with mana and courage to face what is ahead of us. It's through lack of connections that we struggle. Mums4Mums volunteers provide that connection / whanaungatanga in your home and makes that adjustment to motherhood a more successful beginning. A good foundation on which for you and your whanau can build.

Collaborating / Kotahitanga

We are not going to re-invent the wheel if we don't have to. If there is an existing supporting agency in the community, we will connect with them and see if they can assist with meals, clothing, baby items, transportation, etc. We understand that it takes a village to raise a child. Not all of your needs will be met through Mums4Mums so we will do our best to find out who else can provide support to.

Supporting and Caring / Manaakitanga

We do this the best. We stand mothers and support them and care for mothers and baby. Our services are provided in the comforts of their home, and it is done regardless of residency status. Mums and babies are supported and given the best opportunity for a positive outcome. When mum and baby are doing well. then we as a community are doing well.

Our Values are:

Trust / Tiakanga

We are entrusted to go into the private homes of mums and babies. All Volunteers agree to be vetted and to renew their vetting every 2-years. We believe that trust is earned, and our actions must always be based on what is best for babies.

Relationship building / Whakawhanaungatanga

We believe that developing supportive relationships is at the heart of what we do, and only by supporting others are we able to achieve our goals.

Excellence / Hiranga

We aim to perform to the best of our abilities, to deliver excellence and seek improvement in all aspects of our role.

Love / Aroha

We lead with aroha, we leave our judgements and biases on the shelf, and we serve mum, babies and whanau with tender loving care and respect.

8 BULLYING AND HARASSMENT

8.1 INTRODUCTION

Mums4Mums Charitable Trust is committed to the provision of a fair, healthy and safe volunteer environment in which everyone is treated with dignity and respect and in which no individual or group feels bullied, threatened or intimidated.

The intention of these procedures is to inform volunteers of the type of behaviour that is unacceptable and to provide procedural guidance. We recognise that we have a duty to implement this policy and all volunteers are expected to comply with it.

Bullying or harassment in any form is unacceptable behaviour and will not be permitted or condoned.

Mums4Mums Charitable Trust recognises that bullying and harassment can exist in the volunteer environment, as well as outside, and that this can seriously affect volunteer's volunteering and can impact on the health, confidence, morale and performance of those affected by it, including anyone who witnesses or has knowledge of the unwanted or unacceptable behaviour.

8.2 HARASSMENT

Harassment is any unwanted physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct based on grounds of age, disability, gender identity, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, political opinion, family status, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation which affects the dignity of anyone at work or creates an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment.

A single incident of unwanted or offensive behaviour can amount to harassment.

Harassment can take many forms and individuals may not always realise that their behaviour constitutes harassment. Examples of harassment include:

- insensitive jokes and pranks
- lewd or abusive comments about appearance
- deliberate exclusion from conversations
- displaying abusive or offensive writing or material
- unwelcome touching
- abusive, threatening or insulting words or behaviour

These examples are not exhaustive and action at the appropriate level will be taken against volunteers committing any form of harassment. Appropriate action in relation to a volunteer can include the termination of volunteer status.

8.3 BULLYING

Bullying is repeated, offensive, abusive, intimidating, insulting or unreasonable behaviour directed towards an individual or a group, which makes the recipient(s) feel threatened, humiliated or vulnerable. Note single incidents of bullying will not be tolerated.

Bullying can occur in the volunteer environment and outside of the volunteer environment at events connected to Mums4Mums Charitable Trust, such as social functions.

Bullying can be a form of harassment and can cause an individual to suffer negative physical and mental effects.

Bullying can take the form of physical, verbal and non-verbal conduct. As with harassment, there are many examples of bullying, which can include:

- abusive, insulting or offensive language or comments
- unjustified criticism or complaints
- physical or emotional threats
- deliberate exclusion from workplace activities
- the spreading of misinformation or malicious rumours
- the denial of access to information, supervision or resources such that it has a detrimental impact on the individual or group

These examples are not exhaustive and action at the appropriate level will be taken against volunteers committing any form of bullying. Appropriate action in relation to a volunteer can include the termination of volunteer status.

8.4 BULLYING AND HARASSMENT COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

i) Informal complaint

Mums4Mums Charitable Trust recognises that complaints of bullying, harassment, and particularly of sexual harassment, can sometimes be of a sensitive or intimate nature and that it may not be appropriate for you to raise the issue through our normal grievance procedure. In these circumstances you are encouraged to raise such issues with a Kaiarahi, Matrescence Coordinator or Mums4Mums board member.

If you are the victim of minor bullying or harassment you should make it clear to the alleged bully or harasser on an informal basis that their behaviour is unwelcome and ask the individual to stop. If you feel unable to do this verbally then you should hand a written request to the individual, and your Kaiarahi, Matrescence Coordinator can assist you in this.

ii) Formal complaint

Where the informal approach fails or if the bullying or harassment is more serious, you should bring the matter to the attention of Mums4Mums Charitable Trust as a formal written complaint and again your Kaiarahi, Matrescence Coordinator can assist you in this. If possible, you should keep notes of the bullying or harassment so that the written complaint can include:

- the name of the alleged bully or harasser
- the nature of the alleged incident of bullying or harassment
- the dates and times when the alleged incident of bullying or harassment occurred
- the names of any witnesses
- any action already taken by you to stop the alleged bullying or harassment

On receipt of a formal complaint, we will take action to separate you from the alleged bully or harasser to enable an uninterrupted investigation to take place.

The person dealing with the complaint will invite you to attend a meeting, at a reasonable time and location, to discuss the matter and carry out a thorough investigation. You have the right to be accompanied at such a meeting by a support person or representative. You must take all reasonable steps to attend the meeting. Those involved in the investigation will be expected to act in confidence and any breach of confidence may lead to the termination of volunteer status.

On conclusion of the investigation which will normally be within ten working days of the meeting with you, a report of the findings and any decision will be sent, in writing, to you and to the alleged bully or harasser.

8.5 GENERAL NOTES

If the report concludes that the allegation is well founded, appropriate action will be taken against the bully or harasser.

If you bring a complaint of bullying or harassment you will not be victimised for having brought the complaint. However, if the report concludes that the complaint is both untrue and has been brought with malicious intent, appropriate action will be taken against you. Appropriate action in relation to a volunteer will lead to the termination of volunteer status.
